

233330

Field No.

Provenience: CHINA, Ssü-ch'uan Prov., Li-fan area on tributary of the Min River northwest of Chêng-tu.

People or Culture: Koh (?) Period: 500-100 BC

Object: Beads

Material: Stone or jadeite

Description: A string of 128 beads consisting of tube-like beads in varying lengths and diameters of whitish stone sometimes lightly shading into beige, blue or green. From the Slate Tombs which are said to be of the Koh people who are said to have lived in this area prior to the coming of the

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Chiang. Probably collected in 1942.
(in cm.)

max. length - 67.5 cm.

max. width - 2.8 cm.

~~128 beads~~

Acc.

2671

Collection: Presented by Dr. David C. Graham
14 August 1959.

