

A 182670

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

IND

54A-3/08

Country CHINA

Locality

People

Stock

1430
C2

Name Thin, rectangular carving of a fish monster.
Pistachio green jade with black spots. Outline of head with naturalistic eye and fins on obverse.
Reverse plain with circle intended for eye

Burial piece.

Chou period

see other side.

Collection Presented by Mr. Richard T. Crane, Jr., 1930

(H. J. Devine, Collector)

Notes

Acc. 1879

Width 2.2 cm Length 8.3 cm Height 1 mm thick Price

Fear Carving is modern over old fragment of Jade. The outline ^{may} ~~be~~ ^{be} OK but the eye is ^{facing} wrong way and is not a common eye for fish
J.M.M. J.M.M.

12/16/37.

'STRANGE ONE - PROBABLY FRAGMENT FROM SHANG JADE BUT CARVED IN LATER PERIOD'
'SHOU-PING TENG TSANG, ASST CUR, NATIONAL PALACE MUS, TAIPEI - MAY 1980'