

A 233425

54 A 5/01
CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ARCHAEOLOGICAL

Field No.

Provenience: Probably Ch'angsha 長沙,
Hunan Province 湖南省 CHINA

People or Culture: Probably Ch'u 楚

Object: Dish (漆耳杯 ch'i êrh-peï)

Material: Lacquered wood
(squared oval)

Description: Oval, low dish, eared. In poor condition, result of poor preservation subsequent to removal from wet tomb. Colors--interior orange red; interior rim and upper side of ears black with orange-red decoration. The exterior (underside) is dark reddish brown, with the foot area and the turn of the bowl lined in red orange. Warring States
Dimensions: Period, 403-221 B.C.

Wide (max.) 14.9 cm.

Long (max.) 16.0 cm.

Collection: Purchased from Mr. Robert Somerville,
5.VI.57

Neg. No.

107371 (17A-20)

Acc.

2594

Room 66

