

54 A 5/01

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ARCHAEOLOGY

A
233426

Provenience: Probably Ch'angsha 長沙,
Hunan Province 湖南省 CHINA

Field No.

People or Culture: Probably Ch'u

Object: Dish (ch'i êrh-pei: 漆耳杯)

Material: Lacquered wood

Description: Oval, low dish, eared. In poor condition, result of poor preservation subsequent to removal from wet tomb. One "corner" missing. Colors--interior red orange, with interior rim and upper side of ears black with red-orange decoration. Exterior (underside) almost black, with foot area and the turn of the bowl lined in red orange.
Warring States Period, 403-221 B.C.

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

Wide (max.) 13.2 cm.

Long (max.) 16.5 cm.

Collection:

Purchased from Mr. Robert Somerville,
5.VI.57

Neg. No.

107371 (14A-17)

Acc. 2594

Room 66

233426 (107371-16A/17) EX. 123A
H. 32

