

A

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ARCHAEOLOGY

54 A 5/01

233427

Provenience: Probably Ch'angsha 長沙,
Hunan Province 湖南省 CHINA

Field No.

People or Culture: Probably Ch'u 楚

Object: Dish (ch'i êrh-pei 漆耳杯)

Room 66

Material: Lacquered wood

Description: Oval low shallow dish, eared. In poor condition, result of poor preservation subsequent to removal from wet tomb. Colors and decoration--upper side medium to dark brown, with designs in red orange (includes four squares at the cardinal points, central flower-like design, and 8.0 mm. band around upper part of bowl, with narrower

Dimensions: line outlining rim and ears. The underside dark brown, with foot area and upper part lined with red-orange lines. Warring States

Collection:

Period, 403-221 B.C.

Purchased from Mr. Robert Somerville,
5.VI.57

Neg. No.

107371-20A

Acc.

2594

ex. 123A

(107371-20
233427 . H-3