

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

12-4 ✓

92702

ENT

Country Mexico

Locality Huauahua - Oaxaca

People Mazatec

Stock.

Name Girdle. Wide red cotton cloth with various colored stripes.
Ends embroidered with red yarns. sprayed.
(over)

Collection

F. W. Starr

Notes

Man's sash

Price

Acc.

947

exh. 1918

Mazatec men wear broad sashes of silk, raised spun and woven at home. These are generally of red silk with transverse bands of other colors. In modern sashes the tendency is to longitudinal bands and brighter colors. The ends are embroidered with open work at the extremities.