

A ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

548-2/11

235599

Provenience: CHINA

Field No.

People or Culture: Chinese. Modern

Object: Pigeon whistle

Material: gourd, wood, bamboo, bone.

Description: A pot-shaped object with a permanently attached lid that slope to one side, with a rectangular hole on center. There are two round and stubby projection on the sides with an elongated hole on top. A flat piece of bone is inserted to the "pot" near the bottom and from it dangles a cotton string.

Dimensions: Character P'ing scratched on bottom.
(in cm.) (See sketch on the back).

Ht. - 5.3

Dia - 6.4

L. of protrusion - 1.3

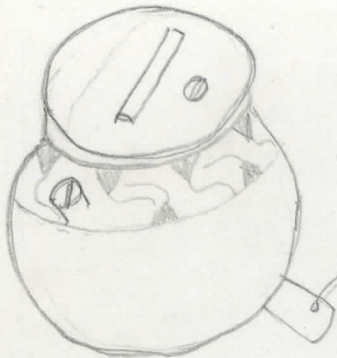

Neg. No.

A.L.B.P. 147

Collection: Presented by Rev. (Miss) Ellen M. Studley 5 August 1963. Collected by donor circa 1923-1963.

2806

Acc.

235549