

A ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

54B-6702

235506

Field No.

Provenience: ChinaPeople or Culture: Sons of HanObject: decorative k'o-ssu wall panelMaterial: silk brocade

Description: The interior has three golden panels, the top one depicting coins, a bowl and spoon, brush pot paper, fan and a bowl of some plant. The small middle panel shows a landscape with one pagoda. The bottom panel depicts two men, one sitting and one standing, The latter is pointing to a bat flying in the clouds above. All of the figures are brown, blue and greenish. The panels are surrounded by a blue border. The backing

Dimensions: of the panel is golden patterned silk.
(in cm.) L. 85 cm. w. 36 cm.

Neg. No.

68

Acc. 3106

Collection: Purchased from William J. Weyerstrahs
March 25, 1970.

