

A

167593

ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

12-25

R35

Field No.

Provenience: Tuxpan, Jalisco, Mexico

People or Culture: Residents of Tuxpan

Object: Backstrap loom

Material: Wood, cane, cotton

Description: Typical backstrap loom set up with hand spun cotton warp. Has cane tenter and cotton lease cord. Batten is of heavy reddish wood. 8 cm. of cloth completed, with pale red stripe. Cf. Negs. 98033, subs 21-25, for loom in use.

Neg. No.

98033,
subs 21-
23

Dimensions: length of loom 110; length of loom bars <sup>(in cm.)</sup> 88 & 93; length of batten 110.5; width of warp 55

Acc. 2726

Collection: Presented by Prof. Bert F. Hoselitz 4 January 1961; collected by him in Tuxpan, 1941