

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

13-2

92710

Country MexicoLocality MeridaPeople Maya

Stock.

Name Bandolier ("probably of ancient type") of white cotton stuff
 Longitudinal opening for head
 Embroidered with colored threads in geometric & bird designs. At the ends hang bivalve shells.

Collection (over) W. StarrNotes used in dance.

Acc.

947

Price

sch. 1918

Bandoliers like these are worn by the dancers at the Carnival dances. The latter are all men. The decorations are of animal figures in varicolored threads in the cross stitch.