

A

ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

13-02

243979

Field No.

Provenience: Guatemala. Purchased: 1948.People or Culture: Santa Maria de Jesus, Dept. of Sacatopequez.Object: Servilleta. Stick-loom woven in two pieces and joined.
COTTONMaterial: Stick-loom woven in two pieces and joined.Description: Servilleta. Stick-loom woven in two pieces and joined. Warp stripe borders on both the vertical edges of one of the 46 cm. widths, but only on the outer edge of the other. There are geometric horizontal bands of brocading which do not match color-wise. Motives are styled bird and floral forms and also scattered small letters including a reversed N (N, I, X, M) which seem to be some kind of signature or location mark. The Neg. No.

Dimensions: 92 X 107 cm.
(in cm.)

Acc.

3266

Collection: Gift of Miss Caroline Van Evera, May 24, 1974 collected by Miss Van Evera, 1947-49.

243979.

lengths are woven of fine 3 ply red cotton warp and weft yarns. Pattern wefts of plain and mercerized cotton in white, green, blue, yellow, purple, and pink.