

AGENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

106

188620

Provenience: Veraguas Province, Panama

Field No.

People or Culture: Veraguas style

Object: arrowhead

Material: flint (probably jasper)

Description: Roughly chipped projectile point with shoulder and thick stem. Is made from a flake and is unifaced.

Neg. No.

See sketch and references on reverse

Dimensions: Length 5.4
(in cm.)

Acc.

2793

Collection: Presented by Staff Sgt. Berry Cole
29 January 1963.

For similar points from Veraguas see S.K. Lothrop,
Arch. of Southern Veraguas, Panama, Peabody Museum,
Harvard, Memoirs, Vol. IX, No. 3, Fig 25, 1950;
Russell H. Mitchell, A Precolumbian Burial in Panama,
Archaeology 15: 235, Fig. 5, 1962.

