

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

100052

ENT

Peru

Country

Locality

Chimbote

People

Stock.

Name

Painted clay effigy vessel
 Seated figure, hands resting on knees, poncho about shoulders. Hood-like head dress. over.

Collection

Manuel B. Zabaleta

L. P. E.

Notes

Acc.

894

Price

Portraits show Peruvian plastic art at its highest. Vessels are found in graves, and in view of the individuality shown it has been suggested that they represent actual portraits of the deceased and supply a great deal of information on the clothes, weapons, music, etc., of their makers.