

92654

Country

Mexico

13-3

Locality

Chiapas 3 Canane

People

Tzendal

Stock.

Name

Girdle: Long wide woollen band. 3 black stripes, each with a thin narrow red stripe.
Round twisted black & white
woollen tying strings
(over)

Collection

F. W. Starr

Notes

"Woman's belt of wool Canane, Tzendal made, known, by the Totzil of Chamula"

Price

Acc.

947

est. 1918.

Tzendal women dress in huipiles of different character according to the town. The girdles are coarsely made of gray wool into which longitudinal stripes of black and red are introduced. These belts are made by the Tzotzil at Chamula. The pieces are sewn together with red and yellow silk.