

ENT
A 190073

LOCATION:

Hall

Case

Room

Neg. No.

Acc.

2401

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

13-6

Provenance: Guatemala

People or Culture: Santo Tomás Chichicasteneango
El Quiché

Description: Woman's tzute (servilleta).

Two-piece woven in red ground color with stripes in black, white, green, yellow, orange; both breadths joined by decorative stitchery in purple, green and white silk. Three rows of brocaded animals, women and geometric motives in shades of yellow and orange, partly filled with jewel-like spots.

Dimensions: 80 x 64,5
(in cm.)

Collection: Presented by Mrs. Alice H.
Gregory, Oct. 4, 1947.

INDEX GUIDES

1.

2.

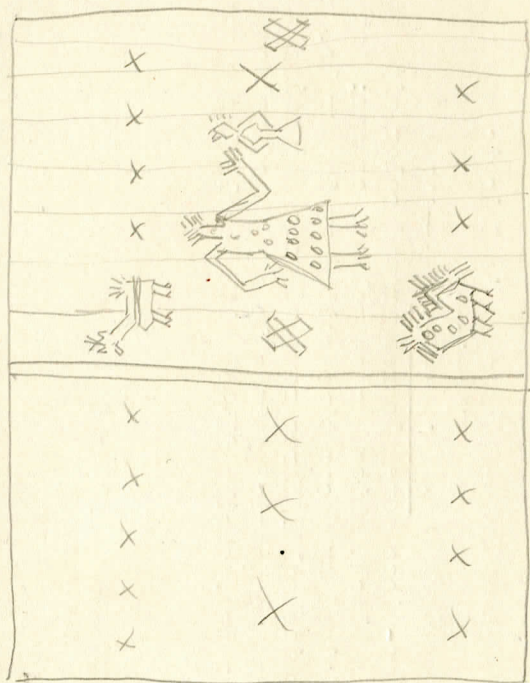

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

x design repeated