ENT A 190092

LOCATION:

Hall

Case

Room

Neg. No.

Acc. 2401

Provenance: Guatemala.

People or Culture: San Juan Comalapa.
Dep. of Chimaltenango.

Description: Huipil.

Two-piece white cotton huipil, mostly covered by silk, wool and cotton brocading in shades of red and purple, green, yellow and blue. Broad, red band on shoulders with narrow, multicolored stri-ped pattern in center. Striped bands alternate below with three bands of different motives: masses of squares, zigzags and birds. Neck-opening is lined with black cotton.
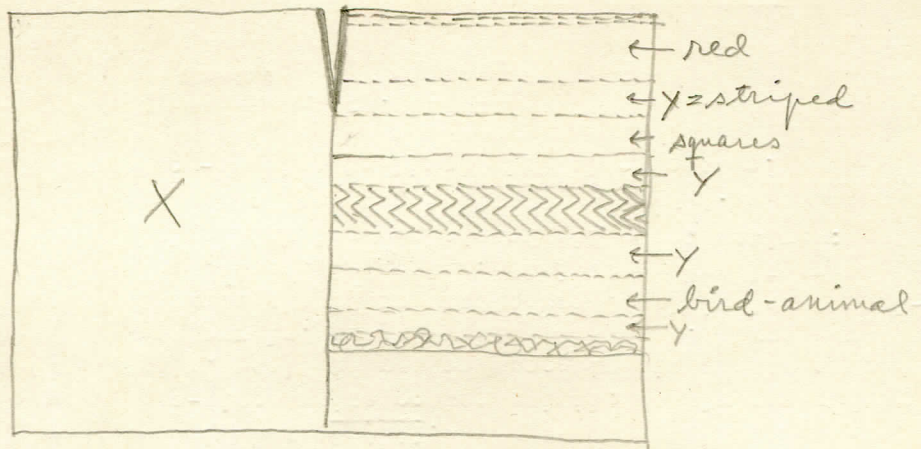

Dimensions: ca. 112 x 60
(in cm.)

Collection: Presented by Mrs. Alice H. Gregory, Oct. 4, 1947.

INDEX GUIDES

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.

← red

← x = striped

← squares

← Y

← Y

← bird-animal

← Y

x = design repeated