

ENT
A

190635

Field No.

Neg. No.

24

Acc.

2977

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

13-7

Provenience: Comalapa, Dept. of Chimaltenango -
GUATEMALA

People or Culture: Maya

Object: Huipil

Material: Cotton, silk, wool

Description: Two-breadth garment; base warp threads brown; three main cross striped pattern bands varying in widths; 1) shoulder band red tapestry-like brocade with narrow multicolored stripes, 2) below, bands of zigzag and animal motifs of predominately magenta and blue, 3) brown with white and blue brocade motifs. Seams, machine sewn; open center seam bound with black fabric

Dimensions: serves as V-neck opening.
(in cm.) (each side) L. 62 X w. 99

Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Eva de Smith
3 June 1968.

