

ENT A

190639

Field No.

Neg. No.

Acc.

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM-ETHNOLOGY 13-7

Provenience: Santa Maria de Jesus, Dept. of Sacate-pequez - GUATEMALA

People or Culture: Maya

Object: Huipil

Material: Cotton, taffeta

Description: Three-breadth garment; white with overall pattern of narrow red longitudinal stripes; center panel nearly covered with solid brocade of red, blue, green, magenta, and yellow. Side panels striped with random crossbars of brocade zigzag and animal figures. Square neckline decorated with magenta taffeta and hand stichery. Armholes finished with green and yell-

Dimensions: ow whipping stitching.

(in cm.)

(each side) L. 74 X W. 94

Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Eva de Smith
3 June 1968.

