

ENT190641

Field No.

Neg. No.

Acc.

2977

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM-ETHNOLOGY 13-7

Provenience: Sacapulas, Dept.of Quiché -GUATEMALAPeople or Culture: MayaObject: HuipilMaterial: Coton, silk, taffeta

Description: Three-breadth garment; white cotton ground; old "antik" very worn; both sides and center crossbanded in brocaded sections of geometric figures in magenta, green, and yellow silk. Seams bound with decorative stitchery; Square neckline decorated with ribbon (torn) and a collar-shape embroidered below binding. Armholes undecorated.

Dimensions:
(in cm.) (each side) L. 64 X W. 110

Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Eva de Smith
3 June 1968.

