

ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM-ETHNOLOGY

13-7

190642

Field No.

Provenience: San Lucas Toliman, Dept. of Sololá -
GUATEMALA

People or Culture: Maya

Object: Huipil

Material: Cotton, taffeta

Neg. No.

Description: Two-breadth garment; red and white longitudinal striped, faint horizontal stripes, with crossbands of brocaded free-standing motifs in red, black, blue, magenta, yellow and green, characterized by heavy band of solidly brocaded upright zigzags; neckline rounded decorated with maroon taffeta and embroidery forming points, ends at center front with circular disk of same

Dimensions: taffeta. Seams hand bound, armholes (in cm.) undecorated. (each side) L.68 X 79W.

Acc.

2977

Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Eva de Smith
3 June 1968.

