

ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 13-7

190643

Field No.

Provenience: Patzún, Dept. of Chimaltenango -
GUATEMALA

People or Culture: Maya

Object: Huipil

Material: Cotton, silk, wool

Neg. No.

✓

Description: Two-breadth garment; heavy red longitudinal striped with various widths of pin-stripe combinations such as green, yellow, red, and white; black, red, yellow, and white; neckline round with main feature as decorated semicircular area of solid embroidery in wool and silks, units resembling feathers and rounded zigzags of yellow, orange, magenta, blue, green, purple and pink. Seams

Dimensions: bound by decorative stitchery in blocks (in cm.) of color:

(each side) L.57 X W.120

Acc.

2977

Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Eva de Smith
3 June 1968.

