

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

13-7

191502

Provenience:

Field No.

People or Culture: Quetzaltenango (?), Guatemala

Object: Huipil

Material: cotton

Description:

3-paneled wite cotton. Very elaborate. Small circle neck lined in red shiny thread followed by a ring of pink & red flowers & a white lamb(?) in the center, surrounded by another line of red thread. A vertical row of similar flowers on either side of neckline. Horizontal lines and geometric designs in yellows, purples, & blues reaching 1/2way down garment. Bottom of garment is plain.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: (uneven) about 90 cm X 108 cm
(in cm.)

Acc. 3967

Collection: purchased from Judy Odlin in 1996

DPLAND