

A

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

13-7

242221

Provenience: Probably San Juan Comalapa,
Chimaltenango, Guatemala.

Field No.

People or Culture:

Object: Huipil strip.

Material: Cotton, wool.

Description: Groundcolor light brown with big sections of plain red weaving. A pattern consisting of narrow compact rows of brocading within these birds in woolen yarn (pink, blue and green). Cotton brocading in white, 2 shades of red, yellow, green, blue and mauve.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:

(in cm.)

Length 108 Width 47

(see drawing)

Acc. 2648

Collection: Gift from Mrs. Hedwig Mueller
Purchased in Puerto Barrios in 1936.

