

ENTA

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

13-8

190627

Field No.

Provenience: Santa Maria Chiquimula, Dept. of Quiché
GUATEMALA

People or Culture: Maya

Object: Skirt (corte)

Material: Cotton and Silk

Neg. No.

24

Description: Two breadths of black semi-heavy fabric with white pin-stripes at 67cm. intervals seamed together with very wide decorative stichery in blocks of alternating purple, magenta, orange, yellow, and white silk. Seam bound with silk magenta yarn. Tubular in shape.

Dimensions: length: 272 (measuring width: 115
(in cm.) total tubular length)

Acc.

2977

Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Eva de Smith
3 June 1968.

