

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

13-14

259424

Provenience: Guatemala

Field No.

People or Culture: HighlandsObject: Textile bagMaterial: cotton and rayon (commercial)

Description: Bag (made from part of a huipil), the main body of which is made of fine, tightly woven, folded at one side and sewn on bottom and other side. The top has a deep, closely embroidered band (11cm) in intricate mosaic-like patterns of orange, green, yellow, rust and blue shining threads completely covering the fabric and descending in a pleasing uneven line, a feathery single-thread embroidery at lowest point. Fine twisted cord handles.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: 19cm by 21cm
(in cm.)

Acc. 3483

Collection: