

A 82580

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM

ENT

PERIOD	OR	PEOPLE	MATERIAL	OBJECT
Pre-historic			Stone	Human Figure
			INTACT	COMPLETE	FRAGMENTARY

LOCATION:

Hall
Case
Room 28

Provenance: Lake Guatavita, Columbia

Dimensions: 6.5 - 3.2 - 1.6

Description: Rectangular human figure, drilled transversely at eye level for suspension.

Field No.

Neg. No.

Well made of well polished green-brown stone. Angular figure with pointed face, upper arms straight by sides, lower arms angle so that the hands are by the chin. A transverse line incised at waist, legs delineated by slanting lines to crotch. Fingers and toes vaguely

INDEX GUIDES

1. _____
2. hands
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____

Acc. 2341

Presented by Wm. F. E. Gurley, 1944

shown by straight lines. Corners of the head decorated with V shaped ornaments which are cross hatched. Three shallow depressions, two for eyes and one just below the chin. The collector added emeralds to the eyes. Authenticity doubtful.

