

42-18

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY--ETHNOLOGY

336141

Provenience: Papua New Guinea, Gulf Province, Baimuru

Field No.

District, Koriki Tribe, Karimai Village

G-2

People: Purari Delta peopleObject: Spoon (dakoe)Material: Coconut shellDescription: Carved coconut spoon (dakoe) made of coconut shell (veda), used as a spoon for eating soups or serving rice and similar foods.

Made by Mr. Evara Karara of Karimai.

Gift to R. L. Welsch from Evara Karara.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:inches  $6\frac{1}{2}$   $W = 2\frac{1}{2}$ "

Acc. 4116

Collection: Robert L. Welsch, Oct. 2000