

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

72

Ent.

No

23677

Country

North America

People

Ancient Maya

Locality

Chiapas, Mexico, Palenque

Name

Fragment of limestone tablet - painted red. (over)

Collection

A. V. Armour. (Istmas Expedition)
W. H. Holmes, Collector

Where Placed

E. C. opp a 84

Notes

7

Acc. 171

study

2 sch

In the earlier Maya cities such as Palenque, most of the ornamentation was in stucco; in the later Yucatecan cities it was principally carved limestone. In both, the decoration was ornate and brightly colored. Here are shown fragments of stucco decoration. The colors are bright and well preserved. The colors are bright and well preserved and of many tints.