Country: California, U.S.A.
Locality: Probably on Ballona Mts.
People: Stock
Name: Two specimens of thin piece of concave oblique shell of elongated lozenge shape. Drilled each with 3 holes in center. Edges decrated on both sides with striations and cross-striations. Probably used in necklace.
Collection: C. H. Kellogg
Notes: Wheeler XII. 20

Width: 1 cm  Length: 5 cm  Height: 1/2 cm  Price:

Acc. 867