

ARCHAEOLOGY

4

A

284277

Provenience: North American Southwest

Field No.

People or Culture: Chaco or Tularosa

Object: PITCHER

(#29-G10)

Material: Pottery

Description: Prehistoric black-on-white design PITCHER dia. of body exceeds dia. of neck. Handle attached to neck and body, flares up at the top on either side and depresses slightly in the center. Handle decorated with lines with dots attached to one side. Lines form letter V patterns turned sideways. Neck design separated from body design by solid white circular framing line. Five pointed star pattern present directly below. Two alter-

Neg. No.

Dimensions:

(OVER)

(in cm.) H. = 17.9; Dia. (including handle) = 17.0.

Acc.

3643

Collection: Gift of Richard M. and Donna G. Rosenberg; Rec'd 12/6/85; Coll. 1962-1982 by the same.

DHR

