

3531

ENT

Country Mexico

Locality San Miguel Amantla, Azcapotzalco

People Either Aztec or Totonacan, Nahuatl Stock

Name Brazier of heavy pottery, with black-bened &amp; polished exterior

The bottom is nearly halfway above the base, leaving an air chamber below. Heavy handles on opposite sides (Cher)

Collection Museum Purchase, 1916

of Joyce; Mex. Arch. p. 185

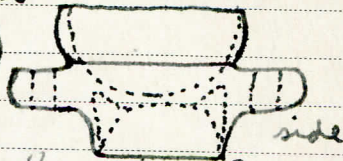

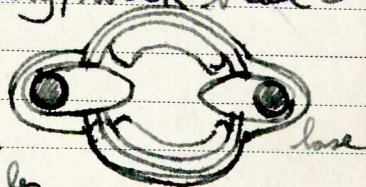

Notes Found at depth of ca 3 1/2 meters. Exact culture doubtful. cf. Selig. Es. Alb. #2 p. 293

Width 15 cm Length 24 cm Height 11 cm Price

Orig. No.

82

Acc.

1265

sch

Probably used as a tray to carry coals, fire & ashes. Aytec apantlecasitl or petytlecasitl Depth of find & block surface suggests Tehuacan culture

of also Joyce h 185, 186