

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

A 3564

ENT

11

Country Mexico

Locality San Miguel Amantla, Azcapotzalco

People Either Teotihuacan or Archaic culture Stock

Name lo hili grater (molcajete) of heavy yellow pottery. Three large bulbous legs, hollow. Brass latching in bottom. Polished inside & on outer rim. Painted red in a hood band along inner lip & varnished along outer lip & on outer side of legs.

Orig. No.

86

Collection Museum Purchase, 1916

Notes Said to have been found at above site at depth of 3.5 meters, but specimen bears name "Teotihuacan". In general

Acc.

1265

Width 17.5 cm Length ——— Height 11 cm Price

sch.
style it appears to belong rather to the ochre type

