

AGENT
235549

A-B

Field No.

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

54B-8/66

Provenience: CHINA

People or Culture: Chinese. Modern

Object: A pair of sleeve band

Material: Satin and cotton

Description: A woman's rectangular bands showing twelve figures and animals, framed by a border of black satin. Embroidered part has white satin ground, and the twelve animals of the Chinese cycle (rat, ox, tiger, hare, dragon, serpent, horse, sheep, monkey, cock, dog, boar) tended by twelve human figures - all in multi-colored satin stitch. Also embroidered

Dimensions: with multicolored, satin-stitched trees,
(in cm.)

L - 55.2

W - 17

(See sketch on the back).

Collection: Presented by Rev. (Miss) Ellen M. Studley 5 August 1963. Collected by donor circa 1923-1963.

Acc.

2806

neg. 74b. P.
339

B

A

buildings, rocks and flowers. Has navy blue backing. Acquired in Peking in 1932.

